

Bigfoot Adventure Challenge

Weaverville Basin Long Trail Route Information

Distance and Elevation: 10 miles and 2100 feet of climbing

Trailhead Location: East Weaver Creek Trailhead – East Weaver Creek Campground – Weaverville, CA

Route Directions:

1. East Weaver Creek Trail – across the creek and south east along the East Weaver Creek Trail
2. Rainbow Hansens through Junkans – left at Four Corners to Rainbow Hansen and then a hard right onto Junkans after crossing the ditch. Take Junkans up the ride and down to the Howe-Hatfield Trail
3. Howe-Hatfield Trail through East Weaver to Five Cent – up the Howe-Hatfield skinny trail and back to the East Weaver Creek Trail, left here and on to the Five Cent Trail Spur and up this and onto the Five Cent Trail
4. Five Cent through Jackass Ridge – left at the Five Center intersection and up to Jackass Ridge and then up and over until the intersection with LaGrange Road intersection in the ridge saddle.
5. LaGrange to Siphon to Lower Sweepstakes – up LaGrange, hard right on Siphon and climb this dirt road until it ends. A cut-in to Lower Sweepstakes is on your right

6. Lower Sweepstakes through Seavey Ditch – down Lower Sweepstakes and at the creek, take a hard right onto the new Seavey Ditch Trail. This will take you back to the Jackass Ridge Trail saddle you were at earlier.
7. Jack Ass Ridge (Don’s Bypass) Trail and back to your Start – down the Jackass Ridge Trail to Day Ranch, down Day Ranch to the Pole Bridge, cross the bridge to the East Weaver Creek Trail and head downstream back to your start.

Summary: This Bigfoot Adventure Challenge in the Weaver Basin in the East Weaver Creek Drainage might be the prettiest of all the BAC routes. The Trail user can expect to be challenged with a lot of elevation gain up Jackass Ridge followed by more climb to the Lower Sweepstakes Trail and then a fun, gorgeous descent to and along East Weaver Creek to the finish
